southern direction

Growth patterns and land use policy within our southern planning jurisdiction will be the focus of a public meeting Thursday, Oct. 26 at 5:30 p.m. in Town Hall.

This will be the second of three community meetings on the Southern Area Planning Initiative, a Planning and Zoning Department study covering 12.2 square miles.

The purpose of the initiative is not creation of a new plan. Instead, it is to receive suggestions on how the area should grow. Residents and business owners from throughout Holly

The second Southern Area Planning Initiative meeting will be Thursday, Oct. 26 at 5:30 p.m. in Town Hall.

Springs and the town's planning territory can participate. For more on the initiative, contact Planning and Zoning at (919) 557-3908 or email sapi@hollyspringsnc.us.

a fright night that's just unreal

Halloween is always Oct. 31 in our town regardless of the day of the week.

Let's ensure there's nothing to really fear on Halloween with these reminders:

- ◆ Trick-or-treating is for kids under 13 who are with an older protector. Teens who take part should not wear masks.
- ◆ Costumes need reflective material that motorists can spot easily. Masks should not obstruct vision.
- ◆ Those not participating should leave porch lights off. Trick-or-treaters need to bypass those homes.
- ◆ Trick-or-treating should end by 9 p.m.
- ◆ Inspect candy before eating. Report suspicious activity to police.

targeting crime

Join us outside Target at 100 Grand Hill Place on Tuesday, Oct. 3 for National Night Out.

This annual event promotes police-community partnerships. It's presented by Target and the Holly Springs Police Department. Our Fire Department will be there with trucks and Cinder, an Australian Labradoodle.

Time: 5:30 p.m. - 9 p.m.

Activities: 2 jump houses for kids, rock wall, basketball challenge

Entertainment: DJ, dance groups, martial arts demonstration, HSPD motor unit, car show, etc.

Food: Mr. Softee Ice Cream and other food trucks

A Musical Tribute

Using a variety of puppet styles, the characters in Carolina Puppet Theatre come to life with engaging personalities and close interaction with the audience. The hand-crafted puppets include superstar Bartlet.

Travis LeDoyt doesn't think he's Elvis Presley. Although LeDoyt has an uncanny ability to sound and look like the King, he refuses to be lumped in with the wannabes in white jumpsuits and oversized sunglasses. LeDoyt impersonates the Elvis of the mid-1950s. That's the Elvis who fired LeDoyt's imagination when he was in high school.

Riders In The Sky have kept the flame passed by the Sons of the Pioneers, Gene Autry and Roy Rogers, for more than 30 years. While staying true to Western music, they have become icons by branding the genre with their own legendary wacky humor and way-out Western wit. The Riders show you how to live the "Cowboy Way."

Armed with a master's in education and a U.S. Army background, Mike Goodwin is seriously funny. Ed Wiley blends the right mix of stand-up, guitar, improv, and impressions for a clean, relevant show. He connects with all ages and backgrounds.

Riders in the Sky

The Holly Springs Community Band is a group of all-volunteer musicians whose performances foster an appreciation for every kind of concert band music. This includes classical, semi-classical, Broadway musicals, movie soundtracks, pop and rock, and marches.

Perhaps the greatest country music super group ever, The Highwaymen traveled the world performing country music to millions. Watch in amazement as each song, one hit after another is sung just as if you were seeing the original band perform. This country music tribute show is full of upbeat, honky-tonk hits like "Ring of Fire," "Dukes of Hazard" and "On the Road Again."

Purchase tickets online at etix.com, visit the Cultural Center box office at 300 W. Ballentine St., or call the box office at (919) 567-4000.

all aboard for terror

Climb aboard for $5 per person for some scary fun featuring zombies, clowns, witches, etc., the night of HollyFest starting at 7 p.m. The ride is about 25 minutes long. There will be food in the waiting area, and the Holly Springs School of Dance will present a "Thriller" dance in zombie attire while you wait. If you're interested in helping out, attend the volunteers meeting at Bass Lake Park on Sept. 26 at 6:30 p.m.

Think it's too early to begin getting ready for Christmas? Not if you want to be in the Happy Holly Days parade. Entries for this year's Christmas Parade are due the Monday after Thanksgiving. The parade is always the second Saturday of December at 11 a.m. We sponsor it with the Kiwanis Club of Holly Springs. For more information, call Town Hall at (919) 552-6221.

downtown on the rise

Come enjoy the up-and-coming downtown scene in Holly Springs. We're celebrating family and the emergence of our downtown Village District as a destination for the community.

Holly Springs Race Fest 2017

Our Economic Development Department is sponsoring the first Holly Springs Race Fest in partnership with the Holly Springs Half Marathon. It will be Nov. 18 from 11 a.m. - 3 p.m. on Main Street in front of Town Hall.

We'll have live music, a kids' area, food trucks, beer garden, and a vendor fair with local art vendors and downtown businesses.

growth guides

Interested in helping guide development in Holly Springs. Our Planning and Zoning Department is seeking applicants for two citizen committees.

Terms are three years starting next March. Applications are due by Monday, Dec. 4.

Planning Board

The Planning Board makes recommendations to the Town Council on development proposals, zoning changes, and related issues.

The board also recommends changes and additions to zoning regulations and the comprehensive plan in partnership with the council and Planning and Zoning staff.

Meeting Time: Fourth Tuesday of the month at 7 p.m.

Openings: 3 in-town members

Board of Adjustment

The Board of Adjustment has quasi-judicial powers and acts separately from the council. The board rules on variances from zoning and subdivision regulations.

It also hears appeals to decisions by Planning and Zoning staff and the Environmental Appeal Committee.

Meeting Time: Second Tuesday of the month at 7 p.m. when needed

Openings: 1 in-town regular member, 1 ETJ regular member

To Apply or Learn More
