Rags to Riches Theatre

“All The Same Web”

Wednesday February 10

10:00 AM

This play is the last in the trilogy written about the trickster, Ananse the Spider. In this play we explore the premise that the Ananse stories spread throughout the world and were told in many different ways and by many different peoples. Brehr Rabbit shows us why rabbits live underground. We get to see Aunt Nancy deal with old Uncle Lazybritches. We see they're all connected when we see Ananse go fishing with his good friend the Turtle. Brehr Rabbit, Aunt Nancy and Ananse are all caught up and spun from the same web.

About the Holly Springs Cultural Center:

The Town of Holly Springs is proud to present the Holly Springs Cultural Center, the new center for the arts, entertainment, and special events in Southwestern Wake County. Located a block from Town Hall in the Downtown Village District of Holly Springs, the new Center is convenient to the entire Triangle and is just 20 minutes south of Cary and Raleigh’s I-440 Beltline. This state-of-the-art multi-million dollar arts facility sits in the heart of a thriving community and serves a population of more than 150,000 within a ten mile radius. In less than a year the Center has become the #1 Suburban Performing Arts Center in the Triangle with thousands attending events and classes each month.
