Quick Guide to Public Hearings

What is a Public Hearing?

Public hearings are often required by federal, state or local law. These hearings allow the Board of Adjustment to receive and consider factual evidence from the public before deciding important issues. This process is an opportunity for members of the public to share information before decisions are made.

Quasi-Judicial Public Hearing (Special Use Permit)

During a quasi-judicial hearing, the Board of Adjustment must hold an evidentiary hearing and make its decision based on the written and oral evidence presented. A quasi-judicial decision must be made on facts and evidence and cannot be based on opinions or hearsay. Anyone who speaks during the public hearing must be sworn in under oath.

How to prepare for a Public Hearing

If you are not testifying:

- If you do not have any factual testimony on the proposal, plan on attending the public hearing to learn more information about the proposal. If you decide to provide factual testimony based upon the testimony presented, you may sign up to speak and be sworn in during the public hearing.

If you want to testify to factual evidence against the proposal:

- If you have factual testimony against the proposal, plan on attending the public hearing to share any factual evidence you may have such as photos, studies, appraisals, property surveys, or other documentation. Anything you present to the Board of Adjustment will be collected by the Clerk for permanent records. Please be advised that petitions are not acceptable evidence and cannot be considered.

If you want to testify to factual evidence in support of the proposal:

- If you have factual testimony in support of the proposal, plan on attending the public hearing to share any factual evidence you may have such as photos, studies, appraisals, property surveys, or other documentation. Anything you present to the Board of Adjustment will be collected by the Clerk for permanent records. Please be advised that petitions are not acceptable evidence and cannot be considered.

What to expect at the Public Hearing

When you arrive in the Holly Springs Council Chambers on the second floor of Town Hall (128 S. Main Street), look for the public hearing sign-up sheet located on the table inside the doorway. Place your name on the appropriate sign-up sheet if you would like to speak during the public hearing. You will also need to be sworn in by the Clerk to the Board. Approach the Clerk seated on the right side of the dais at the front of the room and request to be sworn in under oath. Please find a seat in the council chambers and wait for the public hearing to begin.

For all public hearings, the Chair will call on a staff member to present details about the case. The Chair will then open the public hearing for individuals who want to speak. If you signed up to speak, your name will be called to come to the podium. Follow these tips when speaking:

- Before making your comments, please state your full name and address.
- Be concise with your remarks; it may help to write your comments before the meeting to ensure you capture your important points.
- Limit comments to three minutes or less. The Chair will politely interrupt you to remind you that your time has expired and will call the next speaker to the podium.
- Avoid repetition; if other speakers before you have already made a certain point, then please don't repeat those comments.
- Designate a spokesperson for groups; this is the most effective way to relay the points of groups to avoid repetition. The spokesperson may recognize the group by asking them to stand.
